November 1, 2005. Tuesday. This morning Ms. Sudlow and Ms Clark (our new counselor) came by, making their rounds. I told Ms. Sudlow that the government was saying that my papers should be sold for their "celebrity" value, therefore they should be kept safe... and Ms. Sudlow interrupted me, saying, "They aren't in that little room any more, they are locked in our office."

Later I was taken out for "Unit Team Review", and with me, in a large plastic bag, was the stack of legal documents that I wanted to exchange for other documents. After "Unit Team Review" I and my plastic bag of documents were put into the same little room as on 10/27/05, and there were all my papers exactly as I had left them on 10/27/05. Nothing appeared to have been moved an inch.

Yet Ms. Sudlow had said that my papers were no longer in the little room, but locked in the office. How could she have told me such a bald-faced lie, when she ought to have realized that I would soon learn that it was a lie?

I went through my papers, selected those that I wanted to take back to my cell, and left in their place the papers I had brought from my cell. The papers I wanted to take back to my cell I put into the large plastic bag. When the two officers came to take me back to my cell, I indicated to them the stack of papers in the large plastic bag and said, "Hey, there are the papers I'm taking back to my cell." (The officers would have had to carry the papers, of course, since they cuffed my hands behind my back.) The one officer said, "We'll get those later." I asked, "Will I get them this afternoon?" The same officer said, "I don't see why not."

By now those officers have been replaced by a different shift, and they still have not brought me the documents. Just a little while ago Arroyo (OVER) came by and asked me a question about the documents in the large plastic bag that showed that he was confused about which papers ~~where~~ were to be stored, which sent out, and which returned to my cell. I tried to explain that to him, and I hope he understood, but I wouldn't count on it, since he is somewhat of a dim bulb.

Meanwhile my papers, including the ones I was supposed to be able to take back to my cell, are still sitting in that little room. At least, I hope they are still there, because you never ~~know a~~ know what these stupes (i.e., the staff) will do next.

November 4, 2005. Friday. 9:45 AM. Ms. T. Sudlow with a man & a woman unknown to me came by and looked into my cell. As they were walking back down the hall, I heard Ms. Sudlow say to an ~~inmate,~~ inmate, "You need to work on your cell sanitation. You have too much stuff in there. It all has to fit in your legal box. So straighten it up."

October 28, 2005, Friday. Yesterday morning, 10/27/05, two correctional officers led by counselor José Arroyo took me out of my cell and put me in one of the indoor rec rooms. Then they took away the majority of my books, and almost all of my papers apart from the papers that I had in my legal box. I demanded a receipt for the items they were taking, and Arroyo said he would give me a receipt "tomorrow", meaning 10/28/05. However, as of 2:00 PM today, 10/28/05, I still have not been given a receipt. Arroyo also said that "tomorrow", meaning 10/28/05, he and I would go over the papers and decide what was legal material and what was personal. He said the legal material would be stored for me, and all other material ("personal" material) I would have to "trash, donate, or send home". (A long time ago, Arroyo had told me that "send home" meant to send to someone on the inmate's visiting list.) I asked Arroyo if I could have the personal papers sent to "my lawyer", meaning John Balazs, and Arroyo said that that would be okay.

In spite of what Arroyo said about going over the papers "tomorrow", late on the afternoon of 10/27/05 two officers came to my cell and took me out and put me in a little ~~rom room oppic~~ room opposite the office of the Counselor and Case Manager. He told me to sort out the legal documents from the personal papers and put them in different boxes. (He gave me three large cardboard boxes.) I asked him if I could have two books sent to Joy, books that were intended as Christmas presents for her. He said that that would be okay "because she's on your visiting list", thus implying that the people to whom I could have the materials sent were the people on my visiting list. Upon my questioning him, Arroyo said I could take a small amount of legal material back to my cell with me, and I could take some personal papers back too if they would ~~fit~~ fit in my legal box. However, Arroyo said I should leave in a stack on the floor of the little room the personal papers that I wanted to save. On 10/27/05 I was allowed to take back to my cell only a small amount of legal papers (a stack of envelopes perhaps 4 or 5 inches high).

Because I had only a limited amount of time, I had a chance to select as personal material to be taken back to my cell only whole envelopes; I was not able to select a few papers from one envelope, a few from another, and so forth. In fact, Mr. Arroyo soon went ~~aw~~ away, and Ms. T. Sudlow, who was still in the office, told me, "You have 25 minutes left", so I had to rush.

Before he left, Arroyo told me to give the books to Ms. Sudlow to keep, "because they are valuable". (Exception: Arroyo told me that my copy of Michael Mello, The United States of America versus Theodore John Kaczynski qualified as legal material and I could put it in the box with the legal material to be stored.)

When Arroyo came with the two officers to shake

On Thursday, October ~~28,~~ 27, Mr. Arroyo and two officers came and put me in the indoor rec area, then they went into my cell and confiscated most of my books, and almost all of my papers except those that were in my legal box. Mr. Arroyo told me that ~~I have~~ they did this because I had "too much stuff" in my cell.

I have had approximately the same quantity of papers in my cell for at least 5 years, and no one ever suggested to me that I had too many papers in my cell.

Once or twice I was told that I had too many books in my cell, and I was advised to send some of them out. I did send some out, and there were no further problems.

~~If the~~ ~~If the staff thought on 10/27/05~~ On 10/27/05, if Mr. Arroyo thought that I had too many papers in my cell, ~~they~~ he should have told me so and then given me a few days to send out the excess. This would have made things easier for everyone concerned.

I ~~could have gon~~ would have had time to go through all the papers carefully and select those papers that were most important for me to keep (no more than what would fit in my legal box), and then send the others out ~~As it~~ to the people who should receive them.

As it is, because Mr. Arroyo confiscated everything without advance warning, some important papers will be lost to me that I would have been able to keep if I had had a day or two to go through the envelopes carefully.

When you treat a cooperative inmate that way, the only thing you accomplish is to turn a cooperative inmate into a rebellious one.

Also, as of today, 10/30/01, Mr. Arroyo has not yet given me a receipt for any of the confiscated books and papers.

May 11, 2005. On Friday, May 6, 2005, Arroyo gave me by mistake, with a lot of other mail, a magazine with no name in the address. As far as I could see, it was addressed only to the ADX. On the front of the magazine it said: "US — IT'S TRUE". I suppose that was the name of the magazine. Anyway, I didn't give the mag back to Arroyo on Monday, May 9, because I overlooked it.

On ~~Tued~~ Tuesday, May 10, when I went to rec, I left the magazine and 2 cop-outs on the stool to be picked up. The stool is the regular, agreed-upon place to leave outgoing mail to be picked up when an inmate on this range is out to rec. I was in the rec area across from my cell and was able to watch Arroyo when he went into into my cell. But when I got back to my cell after rec, I found that Arroyo had left mail for me but had picked none up. That is, he did not pick up the magazine and cop-outs that I had left on the stool. So there's another one of Arroyo's frequent mistakes.

This morning when Arroyo came by I gave him ~~tat~~ (among other things) the magazine, and he said "Hey, how about that! I gave you my magazine." I asked him why he had failed to pick up my outgoing cop-outs & the magazine on Tuesday, May 10. Instead of admitting that he had made a mistake, he gave evasive answers. Typical of him.

May 16, 2005. Monday. This morning I went out to rec, and when I got back I found that some mail had ~~been~~ been left for me. Among other letters there was a registered letter from Lutz Dammbeck (postmarked April 27, 2005), folded into a sheet titled "Accountable/Special Mail Log". (OVER)

Normally we have to sign one of those Accountable/Special Mail Log sheets at the time we receive the corresponding letter. I have never previously known the staff to leave an ~~acc~~ "accountable" letter for me in my cell with the log sheet. What probably happened is that Arroyo -- error-prone as usual -- forgot that he had the registered letter for me, and left it with the other letters by mistake.

June 13, 2005, Monday. This morning Mr. Arroyo gave me with other mail a letter addressed to al-Sayyid Nosair, in the cell next door, #107. I discovered this while Arroyo was still on the range, so I was able to give the letter to Ms. Sudlow (who was with Arroyo).

December 19, 2002, Thursday. This morning, probably somewhere around 7:00 AM, Mr. V. Sudlow, the case manager, came to pick up the mail.

Now I have to backtrack a moment and explain that when I sent Box #62 to Julie Herrada as certified mail, I did not receive the service-label receipt (the tag that they tear off at the post office). So on 12/13/02 I asked Sudlow about it and gave him my copy of the form BP-329(58) ("REQUEST—AUTHORIZATION TO MAIL INMATE PACKAGE") so that he could check up on it. He said the form would be photocopied and the original returned to me.

Anyway, when Sudlow came by this morning, he asked me whether I had received back my copy of the BP-329(58). I said yes. Then I asked "Did they ever find the [service-label] receipt?" Sudlow said something or other that indicated he didn't know. Then he added: "I used to work in the mailroom, and it's a mess. These people — small town, you know." I don't know what it would have to do with the fact that Florence is a small town, but anyway it was clear that Sudlow did not have a favorable opinion of the work done in the mailroom.

down my cell on the morning of 10/27/05, I gave him a cop-out dated 10/27/05 in a sealed envelope addressed to Mrs. Sosa, and I asked him to give it to her. He took the envelope and said he would give it to Mrs. Sosa.

On the evening of 10/26/05, I sent Mr. Arroyo and Ms. T. Sudlow a cop-out in which I requested a BP-8 form for the purpose of addressing the problem that "My mail is not getting through". They should have received this cop-out on the morning of 10/27/05. When ~~at~~ Arroyo came to shake down my cell on the morning of 10/27/05, I reminded him about the BP-8 form, and he said "We'll give you that later. About the middle of the day on 10/27/05, Ms. T. Sudlow came to my cell and gave me a statement of my account that I had earlier requested. At that time I said "what about the BP-8 Form?" She said, ~~"We'll~~ "We'll give you that later. I don't have my folder with me." Late in the afternoon of 10/27/05, when I was in the little room sorting my papers, I again asked Ms. Sudlow for a BP-8 form, and she said, "We'll give you that when we come by tomorrow." However, as of 3:15 PM, neither T. Sudlow nor Arroyo has come to my cell, and I still have not received the BP-8 form. That means as of ~~3:15~~ 3:15 PM on 10/28/05.

When I returned to my cell after it was shaken down on 10/27/05, I found my essay "The Truth About Primitive Life" lying naked (i.e., not in an envelope) on my bed. But the last page of the essay (page 126) was missing. I still have not found page 126. The ~~offer~~ officers, or Arroyo, ~~m~~ must have thrown it out.

Later on 10/28/05. When the officers delivered mail this evening, an officer gave me an envelope of internal prison mail addressed to "Rudolph", cell 108. Until we had cell rotation on 10/25/05, Eric Rudolph was in cell 108 and I was in cell 101. On 10/25/05, I was rotated into cell 108, where I now am, and Eric Rudolph was rotated into cell 101. I called out to the officer and ~~red~~ returned the envelope to him so that he could give it to Rudolph.

October 29, 2005. Saturday. I still have not received a receipt for my confiscated papers, and I still have not received a BP-8 form.

October 31, 2005. Monday. Arroyo came by just a few minutes ago with a woman who~~m~~ he said was going to be the new counselor here. He did give me a BP-8 form. I tried to explain to him that the ~~goverm~~ government is claiming that all my post-conviction writings should be sold for their celebrity value and that the documents that he has stashed in the little room (i.e., the documents he took from me on 10/27/05) should be given better security, but he wouldn't even listen to me. He just walked away.

I did not catch the name of the new counselor.

The papers that Mr. Arroyo took from my cell on 10/27/05 (both the legal papers and the personal papers) may have great monetary value.

One of the big issues in my court case for return of property, U.S. v. Kaczynski, Ninth Circuit case ~~No. 10~~ No. 04-10158, was the amount of money that collectors ~~will~~ would pay for anything written by me. & Also, in a status report recently filed by the ~~U.S. Attorney, M~~ Assistant U.S. Attorney, Ms. Ana Maria Martel, the government claims that all papers written by me since my conviction should be sold to pay restitution to my alleged victims. ~~Thus, to the U.S. Attorney's office claims on behalf of the alleged victims an inter~~ That includes all of the papers ~~that~~ written by me that ~~Mr. A are now~~ Mr. Arroyo took from my cell.

Thus, the U.S. government is claiming on behalf of the alleged victims ~~and~~ an interest in the monetary value of those papers.

As discussed in the published opinion of the ~~U.S.~~ Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals and in the various pleadings filed in the case, the amount of money my writings would bring if sold to collectors is not ~~known~~ yet known; but the amount of money involved may be very great.

Therefore I request that my papers should be given greater security than they have when they are just allowed to sit in that little room ~~where any one~~ in open boxes.

This also has a bearing on where the papers can be sent. Because the papers ~~have a~~ may be worth a great deal of money, and because the U.S. Attorney's Office claims an interest in that money, those papers can't be destroyed and they can't be sent just anywhere; they can only be sent somewhere where they will be safe.

As soon as I can get at the legal documents that were taken from me on 10/27/05, I will show you the ~~court papers~~ documents in which the "celebrity" value of my papers is discussed.

I need some of the legal documents that Mr. Arroyo took from me on 10/27/05. I need those documents NOW. I have a large stack of legal documents that I took ~~them~~ out of my legal box. And I want to exchange them for some of the documents that Mr. Arroyo took on 10/27/05.

I now have plenty of space in my legal box for these ~~doc~~ legal documents, and I need to have those documents quickly.

So please give me an opportunity to exchange the legal documents as soon as possible. Thank your
